Archhishop Keane, of Dubuque, Ia., has come out in favor of boxing. The archbishop, in a talk to his congregation the Sunday before the recent boxing carnival in Dubuque, told his hearers that boxing was a good thing and was rather to be encouraged than frowned upon. He had been something in regard to the boxing carnival. He could find nothing wrong in boxing. It was a manly thing, this ability to use one's fists at the proper time, he said. Better knock your assailant down with your fists than resort to the bowie or the derringer. No harm can come of boxing kept within limits. Let the boys go that the bouts, should they go beyond the point of boxing, should be stopped. There was no use in continuing a match in which one man completely outclassed his opponent. As soon as a boxer has demonstrated his superiority over his opponent the match should be stopped, said the archbishop.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 .- The convention of the National Association of Minor Leagues adjourned late to-day, though the board of arbitration will continue in session for sev-

With regard to the Memphis club the national board passed a series of resolutions in which the Memphis club is formally expelled from the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues.

The next step in the programme for getting rid of the present Memphis club will come up at the meeting of the Southern League, to be held at Little Rock on Oct. 28. The call for the meeting was sent out by Judge Kavanaugh, of Little Rock, to-day. By a resolution, recommended by the national board and adopted by the magnates, the attitude of the new minor league organization in regard to the National and American leagues is clearly defined. The National Association will decline to confer with the two older leagues until they have patched up their differences and then only upon a basis of equal representation in

With regard to the application of Fred Clarke for reinstatement from the ineligible list, the matter was referred to Secretary Farrell for investigation. The Kansas City club was ordered to pay the Lowell club $100 for the player Hickey. The Little Rock club was ordered to pay the Corsicana club of the Texas league $50 for the release of J. Clarke. The Southern Association circuit will be increased to ten clubs next year, the application of Mobile and Montgomery for membership practically having been accepted.

Watty in New York.

W. H. Watkins was called to New York last week by a high power in the Association of Minor Leagues, presumably for the purpose of discussing peace negotiations between the American Association and Association of Minor Leagues. Watkins wired other club owners in the association for instructions and he will have full power to act when the matter comes up. Dispatches from New York last night show that the matter was not discussed yester-day, but there is a chance of it being brought up early this week.
